

FREE ESL LESSON PLANS

Save hours of planning time with ready-to-use lessons!

Inside, you'll find a list of reliable, high-quality ESL lesson planning websites that you can use in one-to-one or group lessons, online or in person. All resources included here have been personally tested in real lessons!

1. ESL Pals - <https://eslpals.com/>

- No sign-up required, ready-made PDFs
- Business, grammar, general English
- Tests available for homework and revision

2. TEFL Lessons - <https://tefllessons.com/>

- 100+ free worksheets for adults & teens
- Speaking and grammar exercises
- Fun activities like “Would you rather?” and games

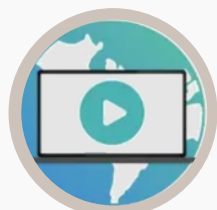

3. Lingua House - <https://www.linguahouse.com/>

- PDFs, audio dialogues, videos
- Mix of free and paid lessons
- Great for reading, listening, and skill-building

4. Using English - <https://www.usingenglish.com/>

- 1,500+ free PDF lessons
- Exam prep for IELTS & Cambridge
- All levels, all skills

5. Fluentize - <https://app.fluentize.com/>

- High-quality free lessons (A1–C1)
- PDFs, slides, teacher notes
- Discussion-based lessons on modern & business topics

6. British Council - <https://www.teachingenglish.org.uk>

- Lessons for children, teens, and adults
- Lesson plans, presentations, worksheets, video links
- Reliable, research-based content

ABOUT MILLIE

I'm Millie, an online English teacher specialising in Business & Conversational English. I created this toolkit to make lesson planning quicker, easier, and stress-free!

